

Fire Safety Awareness / Fire Extinguisher Course

Fire Safety Awareness Course including Fire Extinguishers

Fire Safety Awareness is a course designed to equip delegates with an increased awareness of the danger of fire, to understand the need to follow the company fire procedures and to identify and understand the use of fire extinguishers.

Who For?

This course is suitable for all individuals within the workplace.

Course Content:

This 1.5 hour course comprises of:

- > Combustion Principles
- > Basic Fire Precautions
- > Hazard Spotting
- > Staff Actions in the event of a fire
- > Candidates will be given the opportunity to use various types of fire extinguisher, including a Fire Blanket . On a controlled environmentally friendly live fire unit

Live Fire Training Unit

Benefits of Fire Safety Training?

- > With our effective and practical training you will have:
- > Employees that will have the ability to deal with emergencies at the earliest stage reducing possible damage.
- > Safer and more secure work environment to ensure that you do not fail to deliver to your customers.
- > The knowledge that trained employees will be looking to improve the workplace safety and security by reducing risk.
- > Investment in employees training and development is shown to improve morale.
- > Compliance with health and safety regulations on training.

This course satisfies the specific training requirements of the Regulatory (Fire Safety) Reform Order 2005*

AB FIRE SAFETY TRAINING SERVICES LTD

Specialist in the provision of Fire Safety Solutions

www.abfiresafetytraining.co.uk

Tel: 01229 772653

email: andyburn16@btinternet.com